

BUSINESS COURIER

Thursday, March 4, 2010

4EG to open new bar in OTR

Business Courier of Cincinnati - by Andy Brownfield Courier Contributor

Four Entertainment Group (4EG) is planning to open a new bar in Over-the-Rhine's Gateway Quarter.

The group, which owns numerous Cincinnati-area bars, including the Stand, the Righteous Room and the Mount Adams Pavilion, is developing a new neighborhood bar called "the Lackman" at the Lackman Lofts site on Vine Street.

Morri McDowell, marketing director for 4EG, said the bar is still in the works and hasn't been officially announced yet, but is planned to open in late spring or early summer.

"It's going to be a small neighborhood bar serving the Gateway Quarter," McDowell said. "We're hoping to complement and build off of the success of the neighboring businesses."

Signs for the new bar have appeared in Over-the-Rhine, including at its planned site.