Street fest set to begin

Second Sunday on Main, the third annual urban, eclectic street festival presented by the Over-the-Rhine Chamber of Commerce, begins May 13 and continues through September 9 on the second Sunday of each month from noon to 5 p.m. in historic Over-the-Rhine on Main Street between 13th and Liberty.

The event is free and open to the public.

Every Second Sunday celebration features local live music, celebrity chef demonstrations and wine tastings along with a chance to shop Main Street's boutiques and specialty vendors.

Other new features this year include: Christian Moerlein Beer Garden and a full slate of musical artists that have performed at regional and national music festivals as well as homegrown talent. Starting in June, free downtown trolley rides will be offered from Second Sunday on Main and other key Over-the-Rhine and downtown points to transport Reds fans to the Great American Ball Park, courtesy of Duke Energy and the Cincinnati Reds.

The first festival on Sunday, May 13 pays tribute to Mother's Day with "Moms, Music and Metaphysics on Main," opening with free flowers for the first 200 moms. The day continues with tarot, palm and energy readings, a cooking demonstration by Chef Jean-Robert de Cavel, wine tasting by Paul Ortiz, live music by local musicians: Ellery, KT & the Fabulous Pickups, The Walker Project and Peter Adams & the Nocturnal Collective, and demonstrations by local artists in the 'en plein air' competition.

"Second Sunday on Main provides a relaxed day where residents and visitors can explore and enjoy what Over-the-Rhine has to offer," said Brian Tiffany, President of the Over-the-Rhine Chamber of Commerce. "It's a great way for us to showcase our city's arts and live music scene in a friendly and authentic neighborhood environment."
